SOLDIER DELEGATES THESE

Potomac Department Preparing for Annual Encampment.

GEN. LAWLER TO BE PRESENT

Settled-Department Officials Busy with Alternates Chesen-Matters of Interest.

it has just been definitely decided that the next annual encampment of Potomac Department, G. A. R., will be convened on the 21st day of February. Department Commander Bick ord has been notified that the date given will meet the convenience of the commanderin-chief, Gen, Lawier, and that he will be here at the evening stasion of that day and

The department officials will be busy from this time forward preparing reports, auditing necounts, and attending to other prelimision, although the annual gathering is always interesting to the "old boys," but, as in all and "betton-boling" is already begun.

and "betton-boling" is already begun.

The known candidates are three-Comrades Anderson, Jianney, and McElroy, with the chances that decision will be made between the first two. Courade Anderson is at present senior vice department commander, and this is naturally in his favor, since it is a sort of unwritten law, sometimes broken, however, that the next in rank shall be promoted "ail along the line."

A good deal of interest centers in the list of delegates recently chosen to constitute the
